WILL SPEND AUGUST AT THE WHITE SULPHUR

Mr. and Mrs. Caskie leave for Staunton—Engagement of Miss Galski to Henry Gunst is announced.

Mr. and Mrs. James Caskie expect to leave town shortly for an extended stay. Mr. and Mrs. Caskie will go first to spend some time near Staunton and will later leave for the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they will remain for the August season.

Interesting Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Galski announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Henry Gunst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gunst of this city.

For Richmond Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mayo, of Baltimore, who are spending their summer vacation in Orange, invited a few young people to attend a delightful dance which they gave on Friday night, in honor of Miss Fannie B. Hobson, of Harrods Creek, Ky., Rebecca Gordon, of Richmond, and Charles L. Stovin, of Orange.

Mr. R. C. Everett, of Atlanta, entertained at a most enjoyable bridge luncheon Saturday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen, at Virginia Beach. The table was attractively arranged with ferns and flowers. Mrs. Everett's guests included, Mrs. John L. Dillard, of Winchester, Ky.; James E. Allen, Jr., of Richmond; Miss Dorothy Johnson, of New Orleans; Miss Cornelia Taylor, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. Kevill Gosnell, of Richmond; Mrs. William H. Gosnell, of Richmond; Miss Mary Bell, of Richmond; Miss Augustine Allen, of Richmond; and Mrs. Michael Glennan.

Mrs. Alfred von N. Rosenzweig gave a delightful dinner party on Friday at her home in the Paves Cottage, Willoughby Beach, in honor of her birthday. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Grinnell, Robert Moser, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sawyer, Miss Helen Sawyer, and Master Conrad Sawyer, Mrs. Albin von N. Rosenzweig, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Rosenzweig, Miss Alfreda von N. Rosenzweig, and Miss Christine Rosenzweig.

Mrs. Rosenzweig was the recipient of many handsome presents, among which were a gold locket chain, a suit set and pearl necklace, an imported lace gown, and an embroidered crepe costume.

On Extended Trip.

Charity Lawn Fete.

An interesting charity function of lawn fete will be the lawn fete given by the Young Men's Catholic Club at the corner of Floyd Avenue and Short Street, from 6 to 12 o'clock. A children's lawn party will also be held at the same place from 12 noon to 6 p. m. The entertainment is for the purpose of raising funds to provide gymnastic equipment for the club rooms, and all interested are invited to attend.

Another charity affair of today will be the ice cream festival to be given at the home of Mr. Lancaster, 16 Ginter Park, under the direction and patronage of the Little Social Welfare Club of that suburb. This is the second of a series of similar entertainments given by the club, and the public is invited to be present.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Woodland Heights Baptist Church will give a lawn party this evening at 8 o'clock on the lawn of the church, for the benefit of the building fund.

Visiting Here.

Professor W. H. Boscock, having the chair of Greek in the University of Georgia at Athens, Ga., is in the city with his family. Miss Boscock is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boscock, of Richmond. They are the guests of Mrs. E. T. McFadden, D. D., at 807 West Grace Street. John H. Boscock, who is a student of law at the University of Virginia, and the editor of the Law Review at that institution, is in St. Luke's Hospital recovering from a severe attack of illness and operation for appendicitis.

Visiting Party.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Cowardin entertained a party of friends last Friday evening at home, 1111 W. Broad. Among the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Cowardin for that occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Chambers, Woodson, Mrs. Ayler, Hatcher, Miss Ethel Crane, Robert Short and Harry Cobb, Philanthropus Chess Lawn Party.

The Philanthropus Chess Lawn Party, Sunday school will give a lawn party this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock on the church grounds, corner of Pine and Grace Streets. All sorts of interesting and novel features have been planned for the event, and the public is cordially invited to attend. The grounds will be lighted with Japanese lanterns, and refreshments will be served at small tables arranged at intervals about the place.
